Not only for the Y generation

The times when robbers used dynamite to break into banks went out of the window. In a time of electronics and modern technologies, burglars' basic tools include a laptop, tablet or mobile phone, and their targets are no longer treasuries, safes or hiding spots, but places where it is possible to find information of greatest value today. A dangerous organisation is going to rob the largest companies and institutions in the city. A seemingly easy application will become the most powerful tool used to influence other people's lives. Do you have the courage to face up to the threat? Are you ready to see the true face of small and inconspicuous devices that you carry in your pocket or bag every day?

By means of tablets, smartphones, different applications, GPS systems, QR codes and popular social media, you will take part in an unforgettable adventure in Krakow.
